

PRESS RELEASE

November 2012

EAT SUSHI restaurants choose AURES

Runcorn - Lisses, 6th November 2012: founded in 2006, the Japanese restaurant and takeaway chain EAT SUSHI has grown on a franchise basis.

Today, there are over 40 outlets, in France, Belgium and Martinique.

The chain has chosen AURES to supply all its point-of-sale IT hardware.

- Cash desks in EAT SUSHI restaurants are equipped with several Odyssé II terminals featuring a graphite grey base and “cassis” colour clips – a perfect match for the brand’s visual identity - along with dedicated Odyssé Pack ODP 200H receipt printers.
- The EAT SUSHI outlets’ kitchens boast wall-mounted AURES’ panel PCs (W-Touch for example) along with ODP 200H printers, enabling staff to manage orders and outside deliveries.
- In the back office, Poséo Retail PCs have been deployed: these act as servers and keep the outlets in touch with Head Office.

Management and till software installed on AURES’ hardware has been developed by EAT SUSHI’s IT Department.

About EAT SUSHI

With over 40 outlets, EAT SUSHI is one of France's leading Japanese restaurant and takeaway chains. Fuelled by unbridled enthusiasm for good eating, the founders opened their first outlet in Rue des Martyrs, Paris in 2006.

With franchises now present in towns and cities across France, EAT SUSHI features Japanese cooking that combines creativity and tradition. Meals are available as takeaways, by delivery, or to eat in, with many dishes served at the table and presented on a characteristic "sushi-go-round".
